TODAY'S LATE WIRE NEWS.

Cleveland—Otto Johnston, a teamster, was instantly killed by Nickel Plate train No. 1 today while crossing the tracks on Woodland Hills avenue.

Cincinnati—Chas. Conden, a letter carrier, was fatally stabbed last night while making last delivery. Conden was met in the center of the city by Jim White, a beggar. When Conden refused to buy a card from the beggar, White stabbed him.

New York—The Wall Street scare seems to be over.

Youngstown—The letter received this morning from Manila sets at rest the rumor that Major Logan was shot by one of his own men. The writer says Logan was killed while bending over a wounded comrade.

Cleveland—As a result of a test made of the automobile for collecting mails here in Cleveland, First Assistant Postmaster General Heath, has reported to the Department that the substitution of motors for horses and carts in the collection of mail, should be made universal throughout the country.

Paris—It is rumored here that the Bank of Russia has advanced the Bank of England eight million pounds.

Cleveland—Three ex-city employees and Thos. Teare of the Cleveland Lead Mining company were indicted today. There were five indictments found against each. They are charged with presenting and certifying to the city false bills.

Paris—A Berlin News Agency has reports from Washington that the American government intends to invite the European powers to propose mediation to England.

London—Rudyard Kipling is actively promoting the enrollment of Sussex volunteers.

Havana—Major General Wood, Governor of Cuba, arrived from New York this morning. He was received with great enthusiasm.

Washington—The Senate and House have adjourned for the Holidays. The next session will be held January 8, 1900.

Washington—Senator Fairbanks today introduced a bill granting a pension of $2,000 a year to the widow of General Lawton. Representative Landis, of Indiana, introduced a similar measure in the House. Mr. Landis represents the district from which Lawton's first regiment was organized.

New York—The stock market opened firm to-day. Held that way throughout the day despite the fact that London was a liberal seller. The money stringency has been relieved by Secretary Gage, and although money will undoubtedly be more or less tight for some time, no serious financial disturbances are apprehended.

Searching For Detective.

Cleveland, Dec. 20.—(Spl.)—Ex-Prosecuting Attorney Heath of Medina, has been searching the city high and low for Detective J. D. Williamson, who caused the arrest of the Brants on the charge of murdering Liles Cadnum in 1893.

Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O!

Ask your grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich, soft brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. It is the price of coffee, 10c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

AFFIRMED Two Lower Courts.

Case of Keller vs. Koerber Decided.

Saloonist Can Refuse to Sell Drinks.

Large Amount Involved In New Case.

Shumway Action Goes Over—Court House News.

The Supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the Circuit and Common Pleas courts, in the case of Wm. Keller vs. John Koerber et al. Keller, who is colored, alleged that Saloonist Koerber had discriminated against him because he was a negro. He claimed that he had been charged 20 cents for a drink of whiskey, sold to whites for 10 cents. Because of this he asked damages.

Judge Kohler held that the defendant was not bound to serve drinks to any one, that he had a right to limit his trade as he saw fit. He held that a saloon was not to be classed with a hotel or public eating house, and that the laws governing these, did not apply to the saloon any more than that it did to a grocery or dry goods store, and further that the saloonist could fix the price of his drinks without violating any statute.

The case of the Akron & Cuyahoga Falls Rapid Transit company vs. Gertrude Jennings, was dismissed, the parties have settled. The plaintiff in error pays the costs.

Large Sum Involved.

James H. Selberling and S. H. Miller have filed an action against John F. Selberling and 28 other defendants. They claim to have mortgages on Akron, Copley and Coventry real estate, to secure a loan of $30,000 and to indemnify them against any loss because of their endorsement of a $37,000 Selberling note. They ask that Francis Selberling et al. be enjoined from selling any real estate until their interest is determined.

Ginther Case.

The case of the State vs. Charles Ginther is being heard. He is charged with larceny.

Wills Filed.

The wills of Newman Chamberlain, executed July 12, 1878, and Fred Hauck have been filed. Both men gave their property to their wives.

Continued.

The second hearing of the action to oust Councilman Dawight Shumway has been continued until January 3. The habeas corpus proceeding of the State ex rel. Fred Kraham vs. Theodore Kraft will be heard at the same time.

Referred.

Divorce case of John vs. Mari Zwahlen, to W. A. Martin.

At the Grand.

David Belasco's famous play, "The Heart of Maryland," which is to be presented at the Grand Thursday night is one of the few new plays now patent upon the English speaking stage that is natural, not exaggerated in the heroism of its situations, nor over-strained for the sake of effect in the narration of its story. Its theme is woman's love and her struggle to protect and shield from harm the one to secure whose happiness she devotes all the energiests her nature is the animate motive and absorbent interest of its action.
